Subject: Spontaneous Application – Versatile Position (Marketing, Sales, or any other sector)

Dear Sir or Madam,

Holder of a Bachelor's degree in Sociology, with a specialization in Population and Development, and with hands-on experience in marketing, sales, and management, I am writing to express my interest in a position within your organization.

Over the past few years, I have worked in various professional settings: from being a brand promoter for well-known companies such as ITEL Cameroon, to managing my own boutique in Yaoundé. These experiences have helped me develop essential skills such as customer relationship management, inventory tracking, cash handling, and marketing communication.

However, my motivation goes beyond my current skill set. I am eager to learn new trades, explore different sectors, and take on challenges beyond my initial field. I strongly believe that every experience is an opportunity to grow, enhance my career path, and adapt to the needs of the company. Versatile, detail-oriented, punctual, and a good listener, I can integrate quickly into a team and contribute effectively to achieving set goals.

I would be honoured to bring my energy, dedication, and willingness to learn to your organization. I remain available for an interview, during which I could further share my motivations.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

SEME ZANG BERENICE HANIELLE
