For the human resources department.

Dear,

Allow me to send you my application to join one of your teams; having recently had the opportunity to improve my knowledge of your company and the career opportunities it offers by sharing feedback from some of your employees.

I have 17 years of experience in several departments, I hold an engineering degree from EMSI in industrial engineering, automation option, and a technician specializing in electromechanical automated systems.

Today, I want to join a dynamic team with which I could use my skills, my contact and organizational skills and my ability to work. Wishing that my training and my experiences can be useful to you, I thank you for the attention that you will give to the examination of my file and remain at your entire disposal for any additional information or appointment that it will be convenient for you. to propose to me.

In the meantime, please accept, Sir, the expression of my best regards.
